

Americans for a Maine Woods National Park

A NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The following individuals have agreed to serve on a national advisory committee, Americans for a Maine Woods National Park. These are the first 100 or more distinguished Americans who will advise in the creation of the proposed 3.2-million-acre Maine Woods National Park & Preserve. Many of these Americans are widely known national or international figures. All others are well known in their respective circles of influence.

Vernon R. Alden

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS
Leader in business, education, arts, and international affairs; currently New England Honorary Consul General for the Kingdom of Thailand; formerly President of Ohio University, Chairman of The Boston Company, and Associate Dean of Harvard Business School.

Chester Atkins

CONCORD, MASSACHUSETTS
Founder and President of A/D/S Ventures; former U.S. Congressman.

Kate Barnes

APPLETON, MAINE
First Poet Laureate of Maine; author of Crossing the Field, Where the Deer Were, and poems published in The New Yorker, Harper's, and The New England Review, among others.

Rick Bass

TROY, MONTANA
Author of The Ninemile Wolves, Winter: Notes from Montana, The Lost Grizzlies: A Search for Survivors in the Wilderness and Oil Notes; geologist.

Harry Belafonte

NEW YORK, NEW YORK
Singer; songwriter; actor; humanitarian, serving with UNICEF around the world.

Thomas Berry

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA
Founder and Director of the Riverdale Center for Religious Studies; author of The Dream of the Earth and co-author of The Universe Story; cultural historian and teacher.

Wendell Berry

PORT ROYAL, KENTUCKY
Farmer; author of over 30 books of essays, poems, fiction; recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship, the Jean Stein Award, the T.S. Eliot Award, a Lannan Foundation Award, the 2000 Poets' Prize; (he endorses the RESTORE program as a whole, rather than the Maine Woods National Park and Preserve alone; he supports wilderness conservation when combined with efforts for sustainable forestry and farming and the revitalization of local rural economies).*
Mr. Berry requests the inclusion of these clarifying statements.*

Sally Grover Bingham

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA
The Reverend Bingham directs The Regeneration Project, Episcopal Environmental Commission.

Cindy Blodgett

CLINTON, MAINE & FRANCE
Basketball player; played for three seasons with the WNBA, including two years with the Sacramento Monarchs; former basketball coach at Boston University; named by Sports Illustrated as Maine's #2 athlete of the 20th Century; gold medalist at U.S. Olympic Sports Festival basketball competition; leading career scorer in Maine basketball history.

Nina Leopold Bradley

BARABOO, WISCONSIN
Botanist; writer; directs research and ecological restoration at the Leopold Memorial Reserve; numerous awards include The Wilderness Society's Robert Marshall Award; serves on the board of the Aldo Leopold Foundation.

Jeff Bridges

SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA
Actor, has appeared in 52 films; Academy Award and Golden Globe nominee; received Independent Spirit Award and NATO Male Star of the Year; founder of the End Hunger Network.

David Brower

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA
Founder of Friends of the Earth, the League of Conservation Voters, and Earth Island Institute; former Executive Director of the Sierra Club; author of Let the Mountains Talk, Let the Rivers Run and numerous other books and articles.

Dale L. Bumpers

WASHINGTON, DC & ARKANSAS
Environmental leader; served as U.S. Senator from Arkansas for 24 years; recent Director, Center for Defense Information; presently attorney with Arent Fox; numerous awards include The Wilderness Society's Ansel Adams Award to an elected official "who has made enduring contributions to the stewardship of America's natural treasures."

Mary Chapin Carpenter

WASHINGTON, DC
Singer; songwriter; supporter of environmental efforts, including American Rivers.

Yvon Chouinard

VENTURA, CALIFORNIA
Owner and founder of Patagonia, Inc.; innovator of mountain-climbing equipment and clothing; philanthropist; environmentalist.

John N. Cole

BRUNSWICK, MAINE
Founder and former Editor of Maine Times; former Editor of The Bath-Brunswick Times Record and The Kennebunk Star; author of eighteen books and scores of articles in The New York Times, Time, Life, Smithsonian, Esquire, The Atlantic, Harper's, Country Journal, Yankee and other publications; former board director of the National Audubon Society.

Walter Cronkite

NEW YORK, NEW YORK
& MARTHA'S VINEYARD, MASSACHUSETTS

Journalist, social commentator, sailor; news career, begun in 1937, included 19 years as anchor of "CBS Evening News," earning title "Most Trusted Man in America"; books include his autobiography, A Reporter's Life, Challenges of Change, the trilogy (with artist Ray Ellis) of America's coastal landscapes, South by Southeast, North by Northeast, Westwind, and Around America; winner of innumerable awards, including Presidential Medal of Freedom, the Emmy, George Foster Peabody Award, National Association of Broadcasters' Distinguished Services Award; named to the Academy of Television Arts and Sciences Hall of Fame.

Ted Danson

CALIFORNIA & MASSACHUSETTS

Actor; environmental advocate; founder and President of American Oceans Campaign.

John P. DeVillars

BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Lecturer on environmental leadership at Massachusetts Institute of Technology; Executive Vice President, Brownfields Recovery Corporation; former Regional Administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency-New England; former Secretary of Environmental Affairs, Massachusetts.

Calvin B. DeWitt

MADISON, WISCONSIN

Director of the Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies; Professor of Environmental Studies, University of Wisconsin-Madison; writer, environmental scientist, restoration ecologist, environmental ethicist.

Gretel Ehrlich

GAVIOTA, CALIFORNIA

Author of Yellowstone: Land of Fire and Ice, A Match to the Heart, The Solace of Open Spaces, and Islands, the Universe, Home; her essays have appeared in the New York Times, Life, and Harper's.

John Elder

MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT

Stewart Professor of English and Environmental Studies, Middlebury College; author of Reading the Mountains of Home, Following the Brush and Imagining the Earth: Poetry and the Vision of Nature.

Brock Evans

WASHINGTON, DC

Director of the Endangered Species Coalition; former Vice President of National Audubon Society.

Dave Foreman

ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO

Co-founder and Conservation Chair of The Wildlands Project; Publisher of Wild Earth; Cenozoic Society board director; author of Confessions of an Eco-Warrior and other books and articles.

Harrison Ford

JACKSON, WYOMING
& NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Actor, conservationist; has protected land in the United States and South Africa; has appeared in 35 films whose combined gross is largest in film history; awards include National Association of Theatre Owners' Star of the Century, three People's Choice Awards, Life Achievement Award from the American Film Institute, nominations for the Academy Award and Golden Globe.

Richard T. Forman

CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

PAES Professor of Landscape Ecology, Harvard University Graduate School of Design; Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science; author of numerous books, including Land Mosaics: The Ecology of Landscapes and Regions and Landscape Ecology Principles in Landscape Architecture and Land Use Planning.

David R. Foster

PETERSHAM, MASSACHUSETTS

Ecologist; Director of the 3000-acre Harvard Forest; professor in Department of Organismic and Evolutionary Biology, Harvard University; author of Thoreau's Country — Journey Through a Transformed Landscape and New England Forests Through Time; research includes studies of forests in Labrador, Sweden, Norway, Puerto Rico, Mexico, and New England; serves on boards of the Temperate Ecosystem Directorate of the U.S., Man and the Biosphere Program, Conservation Research Foundation, and Highstead Arboretum, among others.

Morgan Freeman

MISSISSIPPI

Actor, director, producer, pioneer in children's television; winner of three Obie Awards, Golden Globe Award, Silver Bear Award, numerous Academy Award nominations, Drama Desk Award, Film Critics Awards in Los Angeles, New York; National Society of Film Critics Award, among others; founder of Revelations Entertainment.

Michael Frome

BELLINGHAM, WASHINGTON

Journalist; educator; Professor at Huxley College of Environmental Studies, Western Washington University; author of numerous books, including Regreening the National Parks and the National Park Guide; activist for national parks.

Gordon Glover

SOUTH FREEPORT, MAINE

Former newspaper editor and publisher; retired Senior Program Officer at the Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation; former board chair of Natural Resources Council of Maine; board director of the National Coast Alliance and 20/20 Vision; former board director of The Wolf Fund.

Ursula Goodenough

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

Professor of Biology at Washington University; author of Genetics and The Sacred Depths of Nature; former President of the American Society of Cell Biology and of the Institute on Religion in an Age of Science.

Jane Goodall

BOURNEMOUTH, UK & TANZANIA

Primatologist, conservationist; founder of the Jane Goodall Institute for Wildlife, Research, Education and Conservation (with offices in Austria, Canada, China, Germany, Holland, Italy, Japan, South Africa, Taiwan, Tanzania, Uganda, United States, and United Kingdom); creator of the Institute's Roots & Shoots program for youth; author of innumerable articles, papers, and books; recent books include Reason for Hope, A Spiritual Journey (also a PBS special), Africa in My Blood, Beyond Innocence, The Chimpanzees I Love; awards include Medal of Tanzania, Hubbard Medal, Kyoto Prize, Ghandi/King Non-Violence Award.

Michael S. Harper

PROVIDENCE, RHODE ISLAND

University Professor and Professor of English at Brown University; Fellow in the American Academy of Arts and Sciences; author of ten books of poetry, with Songlines in Michaeltree and The Vintage Book of African American Poetry (co-edited with Anthony Walton), both due in 2000; focus of Bowdoin College's 1996 "Celebrating Harper Festival"; first Poet Laureate of Rhode Island; winner of the Black Academy of Arts and Letters award for poetry.

Ed Harris

MALIBU, CALIFORNIA

Actor, director, producer; has appeared in 50 films, one of the latest being the award-winning "Pollock," which he also directed and produced.

Paul G. Hawken

SAUSALITO, CALIFORNIA

Environmentalist; educator; lecturer; entrepreneur; journalist; founder of Smith & Hawken, Datafusion, and several of the first natural food companies in U.S.; author of The Next Economy, Growing a Business, The Ecology of Commerce, and the new Natural Capitalism: Creating the Next Industrial Revolution (with Amory and Hunter Lovins), other books, and numerous articles and television series; his dozens of awards include the Creative Visionary Award by the International Society of Industrial Design, the Corporate Conscience Award of the Council on Economic Priorities.

John Hay

BREWSTER, MASSACHUSETTS
& DAMARISCOTTA, MAINE

Writer; retired Professor of Environmental Studies at Dartmouth College; author of fifteen books, including the recent In the Company of Light.

Bernd Heinrich

BURLINGTON, VERMONT
& PERKINS TOWNSHIP, MAINE

Professor of Zoology at University of Vermont; author of numerous books, including A Year in the Maine Woods, The Trees in My Forest, and Bumblebee Economics, which was twice nominated for the National Book Award; conservationist; holder of the U.S. record for the 100-km run.

Don Henley

DALLAS, TEXAS

Singer; songwriter; environmental advocate; founder of the Walden Woods Project.

Michael Herz

ALNA, MAINE

Board director, Friends of the Earth; former Maine Initiatives board director; Penobscot Bay Network steering committee member; former San Francisco Bay Keeper and Alaska's Oil Spill Commission member.

Julia Butterfly Hill

GARBERVILLE, CALIFORNIA

Leader in non-violent protest against logging of ancient forests; resident for two years in 600-year-old redwood, "Luna"; founder of Circle of Life Foundation; author of The Legacy of Luna; national spokesperson on environmental issues.

Celia M. Hunter

FAIRBANKS, ALASKA

Environmental advocate; co-founder of Camp Denali, a pioneering ecotourism business; former President of The Wilderness Society; Trustee, Alaska Conservation Foundation; recipient of The Wilderness Society's Robert Marshall Award and Sierra Club's John Muir Award.

Holly Hunter

CALIFORNIA

Actress, has appeared in 26 films and numerous plays; received Academy Award and nine international awards for "The Piano," the Emmy, plus four premier awards for "Broadcast News."

Lauren Hutton

NEW YORK, NEW YORK

Entrepreneur, founder of Lauren Hutton New York, Ltd.; model; actress; lecturer on women's health; environmentalist.

Wes Jackson

SALINA, KANSAS

Geneticist; sustainable agriculture pioneer; founder and president of The Land Institute; author of Altars of Unhewn Stone, New Roots for Agriculture, Becoming Native To This Place, among others.

Bruce R. Katz

MILL VALLEY, CALIFORNIA

Entrepreneur and investor; Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Rosewood Stone Group, a leader in Internet-related investing; founder of Rockport Shoe Company; a founding member of Businesses for Social Responsibility; member of the Social Venture Network; has advised The Rocky Mountain Institute, Outward Bound, and other nonprofits; has served on boards of Whole Earth Networks, Esprit de Corps, Northern California Film Institute, The WELL, among others.

Stephanie Kaza

BURLINGTON, VERMONT

Professor of Environmental Studies, University of Vermont, teaching environmental philosophy, activism, nature writing, religion and ecology; author of The Attentive Heart: Conversations with Trees and numerous articles; co-editor of Dharma Rain: Sources of Buddhist Environmentalism.

Robert F. Kennedy, Jr.

WHITE PLAINS, NEW YORK

Senior attorney for Natural Resources Defense Council; founder and chief counsel of The Water Keeper Alliance; writer; entrepreneur.

Roger G. Kennedy

SANTE FE, NEW MEXICO

Former Director of the National Park Service, the Smithsonian Institutions, and National Museum of American History; former Vice President, Ford Foundation; former White House correspondent for NBC; author of nine books, including the recent Burr, Hamilton, and Jefferson: A Study in Character.

Robert Kimber

TEMPLE, MAINE

Writer; wilderness explorer; author of Upcountry, A Canoeist's Sketchbook and numerous other books and articles; President of Western Maine Audubon Society.

Edward Koren

BROOKFIELD, VERMONT

Artist; illustrator of numerous books; cartoonist, particularly for The New Yorker; environmental advocate.

Bill Kurtis

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS

Host of the national public television series "The New Explorers" and many programs featured on the Arts & Entertainment cable television channel.

Anne LaBastille

WESTPORT, NEW YORK

Author; ecologist; lecturer; licensed New York State guide, specializing in wilderness trips; Commissioner of Adirondack Park Agency for seventeen years; books include Woodswoman, Beyond Black Bear Lake; articles appear in many national publications; adjunct professor, Cornell University.

Will LaPage

HOLDEN, MAINE

Assistant Professor of Parks, Recreation, and Tourism, Department of Forest Management, University of Maine; former Director of New Hampshire state parks; member of President Reagan's Commission on "Americans Outdoors"; writer.

Terrell S. Lester

DEER ISLE, MAINE

Fine art photographer with themes of landscape and light; represented in museum, corporate and private collections in North America and Europe; owner of gallery in Deer Isle; new book, Maine: The Seasons, due May, 2001.

Barry Lopez

MCKENZIE RIVER, OREGON

Essayist; short story writer and author of Arctic Dreams, Field Notes, About This Life, The Rediscovery of North America, and other works of fiction and nonfiction.

Jerry Mander

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

Program Director, Foundation for Deep Ecology; Senior Fellow, Public Media Center; President, International Forum on Globalization; co-editor of The Case Against the Global Economy; author of Four Arguments for the Elimination of Television a, In the Absence of the Sacred: The Failure of Technology and The Survival of Indian Nations.

Lynn Margulis

AMHERST, MASSACHUSETTS

Professor of Geosciences, University of Massachusetts-Amherst; former Guggenheim Fellow and Sherman Fairchild Fellow; member, National Academy of Sciences; has worked with NASA on planetary biology and chemical evolution issues; co-developed, with James Lovelock, the Gaia Theory; author of, among others, Symbiotic Planet: A New Look At Evolution and Biodiversity: Biological Molecular Symbiosis and Kingdom Origins.

Cherie Mason

SUNSET, MAINE

Radio journalist; author; Maine League of Conservation Voters board director; former Friends of Acadia National Park board director, The Nature Conservancy Maine Chapter trustee, and Maine Endangered Wildlife Advisory Council board chair.

Walter E. Massey

ATLANTA, GEORGIA

President of Morehouse College; former Director of the National Science Foundation, Vice President of the University of Chicago and Director of the Argonne National Laboratory, Dean of the College and Professor of Physics at Brown University, Provost and Senior Vice President at the University of California.

Michael McCloskey

PORTLAND, OREGON

Served as an executive of the Sierra Club for thirty-three years (Chairman, Executive Director, Chief of Staff, and Conservation Director); currently Chairman of the Mineral Policy Center; recently served as Co-Chairman of the Environmental Management Task Force of the President's Council on Sustainable Development.

Bill McKibben

JOHNSBURG, NEW YORK

Writer; author of The End of Nature and Hope, Human and Wild as well as numerous other books and articles.

Stephanie Mills

MAPLE CITY, MICHIGAN

Writer; author of In Service of the Wild and Whatever Happened to Ecology?; named a 1996 Visionary by the Utne Reader.

Sy Montgomery

HANCOCK, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Author of Walking with the Great Apes, Nature's Everyday Mysteries, and Spell of the Tiger; and she writes for the Boston Globe and other publications.

Margaret E. Murie

MOOSE, WYOMING

Lifelong writer and speaker for conservation and wilderness, particularly the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge; member of the Honorary Council of The Wilderness Society; author of Wapiti Wilderness and Two in the Far North.

George Nevoll

LAS CRUCES, NEW MEXICO

Editorial Page Editor of Portland Press Herald and Maine Sunday Telegram (1991-1999); former journalist at newspapers in Oregon, Idaho, Indiana, Michigan, and Kansas; recipient of Scripps-Howard Foundation's Edward J. Meeman Award for conservation writing and numerous other awards; Honorary Park Ranger, National Park Service.

Richard Nelson

SITKA, ALASKA

Writer; anthropologist; conservation activist; author of The Island Within, Heart and Blood: Living With Deer in America, and other nonfiction books and articles; winner of John Burroughs Award.

Reed Noss

CORVALLIS, OREGON

President of Conservation Science, Inc.; President of the Society for Conservation Biology; Science Editor of Wild Earth; former editor of Conservation Biology.

David W. Orr

OBERLIN, OHIO

Chair of Environmental Studies Program, Oberlin College, and initiator of its Adam Joseph Lewis Center for Environmental Studies; author of Ecological Literacy and Earth in Mind, as well as innumerable articles and papers.

Roger Payne

WOODSTOCK, VERMONT

Research biologist studying whales and working for their conservation; MacArthur Fellow; Schweitzer Medalist; Global 500 awardee.

Carl Pope

BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA

Executive Director of the Sierra Club; former Executive Director of the California League of Conservation Voters and Political Director of Zero Population Growth.

Roxanne QuimbyRALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA
& WINTER HARBOR, MAINE

Founder and President of Burt's Bees, manufacturer of earth-friendly personal care products; environmental advocate; philanthropist.

Robert Redford

SUNDANCE, UTAH

Film director; actor; producer; environmental advocate.

Christopher Reeve

BEDFORD, NEW YORK

Actor; film director; activist for spinal cord research; environmental advocate; author of Still Me.

Galen Rowell

EMERYVILLE, CALIFORNIA

Nature photographer; creator of 14 books of photography and contributor to dozens of others; mountaineer who has climbed in every major mountain range in the world; awards include the Ansel Adams Award for contributions to the art of wilderness photography.

Jan Schlichtmann

BEVERLY, MASSACHUSETTS

Attorney; President of Earth Speaks environmental media production company; led the legal battle over Woburn, Massachusetts, pollution tragedy detailed in the best-selling book and movie A Civil Action.

David C. Smith

BANGOR & TOPSFIELD, MAINE

Bird and Bird professor of history emeritus, University of Maine; holds professorships in the Institute for Quaternary and Climate Studies and is professor of Agricultural History, Maine Agricultural Experiment Station; author of books on logging, paper making, land use, and agriculture, focused on Maine and the Northeast; served on Committee on the Centennial of the National Parks and assisted with its publication, National Parks for the Future; former board member of the Forest History Society.

Michael Soulé

HOTCHKISS, COLORADO

Co-founder and President of The Wildlands Project; co-founder of the Society for Conservation Biology; co-editor of Continental Conservation: Scientific Foundations of Regional Reserve Networks; retired Professor Emeritus of Environmental Studies, University of California at Santa Cruz.

Page StegnerSANTA CRUZ, CALIFORNIA
& GREENSBORO, VERMONT

Professor Emeritus of literature and creative writing at University of California at Santa Cruz; author of Outposts of Eden; Islands of the West; Grand Canyon: The Great Abyss, and co-author with his late father, Wallace Stegner, of American Places.

Walkin' Jim Stoltz

BIG SKY, MONTANA

Singer; songwriter; co-founder of M.U.S.E. (Musicians United to Sustain the Environment); 24,000 miles of wilderness walking, including hundreds of miles through the Maine Woods; tours with "Forever Wild" across U.S. promoting wildlands preservation.

Eugene St. Pierre

AUBURN, MAINE

Lifelong Maine artist and angler; retired Chief Executive Officer and Board Chair, Peoples Heritage Bank, the largest bank in Maine and fourth largest bank in New England.

Meryl Streep

CONNECTICUT

Actress in film, television, and theater; has appeared in 27 films and numerous plays; winner of two Academy Awards and 12 nominations, the Emmy, Cannes Film Festival Award, American Comedy Award, Outer Critics Circle Award, Theater World Award, an Obie, and a Tony nomination.

Brian Swimme

MILL VALLEY, CALIFORNIA

Cosmologist; Director of the Center for the Story of the Universe; co-author of The Universe Story.

John Terborgh

DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA
Professor of Environmental Science, Duke University; author of Where Have All the Birds Gone? Requiem for Nature and several other books; co-editor of Continental Conservation: Scientific Foundations of Regional Reserve Networks; The Wildlands Project board director.

Mary Evelyn Tucker

LEWISBURG, PENNSYLVANIA
Professor of Religion, Bucknell University; coordinator of ten Harvard Conferences on World Religions and Ecology; coordinator of Forum on Religion and Ecology; editor of Harvard University Press's Religions and the World and Ecology Book Series.

Diana Wall

FORT COLLINS, COLORADO
Professor and Director, Natural Resource Ecology Laboratory, Colorado State University; Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science; former President, American Institute of Biological Sciences; current President, Ecological Society of America; Chair, DIVERSITAS International Biodiversity Observation Year 2001-2002; conducts research on soil biodiversity and its contribution to healthy, productive soils.

Sam Waterston

NEW YORK, CONNECTICUT, MASSACHUSETTS
Actor, known especially for portrayals of Abraham Lincoln, leading roles on television's "Law and Order" and "I'll Fly Away," and the film "The Killing Fields," plus numerous other roles on stage and screen; awards include Golden Globe, Obie, Drama Desk, NY Critics Circle, several Emmys, and nominations for the Academy Award and the Tony; environmental activist.

T. H. Watkins

BOZEMAN, MONTANA
Holds the Wallace Stegner Memorial Chair at Montana State University; author of more than twenty books and a regular contributor to Audubon and National Geographic; former Vice President of The Wilderness Society and Editor of Wilderness magazine.

William J. Whalen

MILL VALLEY, CALIFORNIA
Former Director of the National Park Service (its tenth); served earlier as first Superintendent of Golden Gate National Recreation Area, as Deputy Superintendent of Yosemite National Park, and at Great Smoky Mountain National Park, Catocin Mountain Park, and NPS headquarters in Washington, DC; former Executive Director, San Francisco Planning and Urban Renewal Assn.; former Vice President of Kenetech Corporation; presently consults on environmental issues with corporations.

Terry Tempest Williams

CASTLE VALLEY, UTAH
Naturalist in Residence at the Utah Museum of Natural History; wildlands advocate; author of Refuge: An Unnatural History of Family and Place and numerous other books and articles; The Wildlands Project board director; former board director of The Wilderness Society.

Edward O. Wilson

CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS
Frank B. Baird, Jr. Professor of Science, Curator in Entomology, Museum of Comparative Zoology, Harvard University; winner of Pulitzer Prizes for On Human Nature and The Ants, co-authored with Bert Holldabler; other books include Consilience: The Unity of Knowledge, The Diversity of Life, Sociobiology, The Insect Societies, Biophilia; winner of the National Medal of Sciences and the Crafoord Prize of the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences; board trustee of The Nature Conservancy, among others.

Robin W. Winks

NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT
Chair of the History Department, Yale University; author of seventeen books, including Laurance S. Rockefeller: Catalyst for Conservation; has visited 376 units of America's national park system.

Timothy E. Wirth

WASHINGTON, DC & COLORADO
President, United Nations Foundation; former U.S. Senator and Congressman from Colorado; former Under Secretary of State for Global Affairs.

George M. Woodwell

WOODS HOLE, MASSACHUSETTS & YORK, MAINE
Founder and Director of The Woods Hole Research Center, which initiated The World Commission on Forests and drafted the treaty on global climate change; conducts forest research in Brazil, Siberia, and New England; Fellow, American Academy of Arts and Sciences; member, National Academy of Sciences; founding trustee and vice chairman, National Resources Defense Council; recipient of the 1996 Heinz Environmental Award and the 2000 John H. Chafee Excellence in Environmental Affairs Award.

Ann H. Zwinger

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLORADO
Naturalist; author of Beyond the Aspen Grove, Run, River, Run, Land Above the Trees, Yosemite: Land of Hanging Valleys, The Mysterious Lands, A Desert Country Near the Sea, and others.

* Deceased

RESTORE : The North Woods

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Kathi Anderson—Executive director, Walden Woods Project and The Thoreau Institute; Pepperell, MA.

Christian Ballantyne—Northeast regional director, Sierra Club; Saratoga Springs, NY.

John Davis—Program officer, Biodiversity and Wilderness, Foundation for Deep Ecology, consultant to The Wildlands Project and Wild Earth; board member, Conservation Land Trust; Essex, NY.

C. Rudy Engholm—Founder and president, Northern Wings; retired vice president and general counsel, Creative Solutions, Inc.; board member, North Woods Wilderness Trust; Portland, ME.

Brock Evans—Executive director, Endangered Species Coalition; retired vice president for national issues, National Audubon Society; Washington, DC.

Kathleen Fitzgerald—Executive director, Stowe Land Trust; acting executive director, Northeast Wilderness Trust; former coordinator, Greater Laurentian Wildlands Project; Stowe, VT.

Charles FitzGerald—Wildlands philanthropist; founder and owner, Bowl and Board stores; founder, Maine Woods Conservancy; Dover-Foxcroft, ME.

Sarah Harding—Former development director, RESTORE: The North Woods; former development associate, Wellesley College Centers for Women; Washington, DC.

Elisabeth Kay (Treasurer)—Former manager, The Patagonia Outlet (Freeport, ME); Yarmouth, ME.

Michael Kellett (Clerk)—Executive director, RESTORE: The North Woods; vice president, American Lands Alliance; former regional director, The Wilderness Society; Westford, MA.

Robert King—Board member, Connecticut Small Power Producers Association; speakers bureau member, Union of Concerned Scientists; Stoddard, NH.

Roxanne Quimby—Wildlands philanthropist; co-founder and president, Burt's Bees, Inc.; Winter Haven, ME.

Jamie Sayen—Founder, Northern Appalachian Restoration Project; publisher, Northern Forest Forum; North Stratford, NH.

George Wuerthner (Chair)—Ecologist; photographer; author of numerous books and articles on national parks, wilderness, and travel, including The Maine Coast; Eugene, OR.

STAFF

Amy Collins—Development Coordinator

Cherrie Corey—Senior Development Associate

Kristin DeBoer—Program Director

Jesse Isaak-Ross—Administrative Assistant

Michael Kellett—Executive Director

Mimi McConnell—Special Projects Director

Jym St. Pierre—Maine Director

Beth Wheatley—Special Projects Coordinator

RESTORE : The North Woods

P.O. Box 1099 • Concord, MA 01742 • restore@restore.org
9 Union Street • Hallowell, ME 04347 • mainewoods@restore.org